October 5 - 12: Council for the Arts of Herndon Presents "Herndon Arts Week"

Every year the Council for the Arts of Herndon designates a week in October for the celebration of the Arts in Herndon. During this week, special activities are held at ArtSpace Herndon as well as local restaurants. Local arts organizations arrange for activities that highlight the many opportunities to enjoy art in our town.

Schedule for Arts week:

1. Portrait Competition Reception held at ArtSpace, October 5, 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., free and open to the public, sponsored by Council for the Arts.
This well-known Herndon-based art competition is being judged by Edward J. Reed, a critically acclaimed, international award-winning artist who juries numerous national and regional art competitions.
2. Champagne and Chocolate Fundraiser for Arts Center, ArtSpace Herndon, October 6, 6:00 to 8:00 pm, $25 and up.
Another great event at ArtSpace Herndon is the Champagne and Chocolate Gala, a fundraiser for the future Herndon Arts Center. Check out the ArtSpace website for details at www.artspaceherndon.org.
3. Arts Crawl on October 9, 5:30 to 7:30, free and open to the public, sponsored by the Council for the Arts.
This year the 3rd Annual Arts Crawl will be held on October 9 at four local restaurants: Ice House Café, O'Sullivan's Irish Pub, Jimmy's Old Town Tavern and the Mediterranean Breeze. Sponsored by the Council for the Arts, Herndon-area artists are available at each restaurant with examples of their work on display.
4. The 39 Steps-Industrial Strength Theatre, Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays through Oct. 20. 8:00 p.m., $25.
The exciting highlight of the Herndon arts community is the new professional theatre company, NextStop Theatre. In their first production, NextStop presents The Thirty-Nine Steps, based on an Alfred Hitchcock screenplay. Tickets can be purchased online (www.nextstoptheatre.com) or at the box office at 269 Sunset Park Drive.
5. Crosscurrents: Om Shalom, ArtSpace, October 12, 8:00 p.m., $15/$18
The Om Shalom Trio of Valerya Sholokhova, Ranendra Das and Abhik Mukherjee, award-winning international musicians, will play a fusion of Indian Classical, Jewish Folk and Far Eastern music. For more information, visit www.omshalomtrio.com.

Visit the Council for the Arts of Herndon website at <http://herndonarts.org> for more information.

October 6: 7th Annual MPAartfest in McLean Central Park

McLean Project for the Arts (MPA) is presenting the 7th Annual MPAartfest on Sunday, October 6. Artfest is a great day in the park surrounded by wonderful art for sale, lively music, art activities for all ages, tasty food and a little wine. MPA selected 49 artists who will provide paintings, watercolors, photographs, textiles, jewelry, sculptures, and ceramics in a wide range of prices.

Event Details:

Sunday, October 6, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., rain or shine
McLean Central Park
Corner of Dolley Madison Blvd. and Old Dominion Drive
McLean

- Bring the kids! MPAartfest is a community event for the whole family. There will be art activities for all ages at Innovation Station, sponsored by TTR Sotheby's International Realty. Your family can stroll through the Children's Art Walk which features art from K-6 grades from schools in the McLean area. You can watch or try your own hand at live figure drawing at Open Studio.
- Listen (and dance) to great music from a wide variety of performers.
- Food and drink will be available for purchase.
- Convenient satellite parking will be available at 6862 Elm Street at the Fleetwood Road intersection and at Cardinal Bank located at the intersection of Dolley Madison Boulevard (Rte. 123) and Beverly Road. From there, free and frequent shuttle bus service will ferry passengers to and from MPAartfest. Handicap Access space will be available at Dolley Madison Library.

MPAartfest is free, but a $5 donation to McLean Project for the Arts is greatly appreciated. Without the help of MPAartfest sponsors and donors, MPA could not provide this free event to the community, nor allow the artists to keep 100 percent of their sales. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, MPA must look to private sources to raise the majority of the funds needed for its operations, programs, exhibitions, and of course, to bring MPAartfest to McLean. Many thanks go to our event partners, McLean Community Center and Fairfax County Park Authority, sponsor Capitol One and the office of Dranesville Supervisor John Foust.

October 6, 20: Grain Grinding Demonstrations at Colvin Run Mill

See and hear 19th century technology at work by watching a grain grinding demonstration at the beautiful restored Colvin Run Mill in Great Falls.

Event Details:

Sundays, October 6 and 20
Noon through 3:00 p.m.
Colvin Run Mill
10017 Colvin Run Road
Great Falls

Tour cost:

$7 adults, $6 student 16 and up with ID, $5 child and senior.

Call 703-759-2771 to confirm that conditions permit grinding. No reservations required.

Tour this water-powered technological marvel that was built around 1811. On this multi-sensory tour, you'll see the massive waterwheel and gears, feel the furrowed stones that grind grain and smell the burn of mill stones set too close together. You'll hear stories about the man whose ideas revolutionized the milling industry, the family that ran Colvin Run Mill for over 50 years, and learn about George Washington's plans for a mill on Colvin Run.

Bring your family, friends or a whole group and explore the beautifully wooded and landscaped grounds around historic Colvin Run Mill and General Store. You'll find something fun for everyone.

For information, call 703-759-2771 or visit
<http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/crm/events.htm>.

October 7: Tysons Comprehensive Plan Amendment - Preliminary Dialogue with County Staff

The public is invited to a preliminary dialogue with Fairfax County staff on a proposed amendment to the Comprehensive Plan for Tysons. The current version of the Tysons Plan, adopted in 2010, recommends that additional work and studies be completed, such as detailed urban design guidelines and a funding plan for transportation improvements. Over the past three years, many of these recommended studies and plan implementation efforts have been completed, and staff is proposing updates to the Comprehensive Plan to reflect this work.

Meeting details:

Monday, October 7 from 7:30 - 9:00 p.m. (New Date)
Spring Hill Elementary School
8201 Lewinsville Rd.
McLean

At the meeting, County staff will kick off the Plan amendment process with a presentation of proposed changes to the implementation, land use, and urban design sections of the Plan. Staff will also answer questions and listen to your comments on the proposals. An initial draft and summary of Plan updates will be posted on the Tysons web site (www.fairfaxcounty.gov/tysons) in advance, and you are encouraged to submit comments on-line. Materials from the October 7 session will also be posted on the web.

A second dialogue with County staff will be held in early November to allow for additional public participation and further revision of the draft amendment.

Background:

The Fairfax County Board of Supervisors has authorized a series of three Plan amendments for Tysons that will reconcile the Plan text and maps with the studies and planning activities that have been completed to date. The first amendment, which will be discussed on October 7, will cover implementation, land use (including the Plan's initial development level for office uses), and urban design. The second amendment will cover transportation. The third amendment will cover parks, public facilities, and other updates as may be determined during the amendment process. Public input sessions for the second and third Tysons Plan amendments will be held in 2014.

Fairfax County is committed to nondiscrimination on the basis of disability in all county programs, services and activities. Reasonable accommodations will be provided upon request. Please call 703-324-1380 (TTY: 711)

October 8: Great Falls Citizens Association Candidate Forum

Great Falls Citizens Association (GFCA) is hosting a candidate forum for the upcoming November 5 elections.

October 17: Master Plan Revision Meeting Planned for Langley Fork Park

The Fairfax County Park Authority has prepared a draft revision to the master plan for Langley Fork Park located at 6250 Georgetown Pike in McLean, Va. The draft document can be found online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/plandev/langleyfork.htm. A meeting has been scheduled to present the plan to the public for comment.

Meeting Details:

Thursday, October 17, at 7 p.m.
Franklin Sherman Elementary School
6633 Brawner Street
McLean

Park Authority staff will present the draft master plan followed by a moderated comment session. If you wish to speak at this meeting, you may pre-register by contacting the Public Information Office at 703-324-8662 or via Parkmail@fairfaxcounty.gov. Speakers can sign up at the meeting as well.

As part of the master plan revision process, the Park Authority held a public information meeting in October 2011 to present information about the park site and to identify community preferences, concerns and issues to be addressed during the master plan revision process. The October 13, 2011 meeting presentation and meeting summary are available for review online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/plandev/langleyfork.htm.

Since that meeting, detailed studies have also been conducted on the cultural and natural resources contained on the site. These studies informed the draft master plan that is now ready for public review.

Following the upcoming meeting, a 30-day public comment period will allow additional opportunity for public input on the draft plan. All comments will be evaluated by the master planning team and adjustments made to the plan based on public input, if needed.

For more information please contact Jane Edmondson in the office of Supervisor Foust at Jane.Edmondson@FairfaxCounty.gov or call 703-356-0551.

October 19: Watershed Clean-up Day

Park Authority Seeking Volunteers

The Fairfax County Park Authority's annual Watershed Clean-up Day is slated for Saturday, October 19. Volunteers are needed to help comb the shores of local lakes, creeks, and streams for litter and other debris. Along with the normal haul of tires, cans, plastic bags, cigarette butts, and other illegally dumped trash, crews at clean-up sites will document how many balloons they find and share this data with Clean

Virginia Waterways, a nonprofit organization affiliated with the Ocean Conservancy.

Event Details:

Saturday, October 19 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Please call one of the following participating sites to register:

Frying Pan Farm Park, 703-437-9101
Hidden Oaks Nature Center, 703-941-1065
Hidden Pond Nature Center, 703-451-9588
Huntley Meadows Park, 703-768-2525
Lake Accotink Park, 703-569-3464
Riverbend Visitor Center, 703-759-9018
Sully Historic Site, 703-437-1794
Ellanor C. Lawrence Park, 703-631-0013

Wearing boots, old clothes, and gloves are highly recommended. Trash bags will be provided.

The Park Authority's Watershed Clean-up Day is a great way for individuals, students, families, scouts, and other community groups to help make a difference in their local neighborhoods and prevent trash from flowing downstream to the Chesapeake Bay and beyond. According to Clean Virginia Waterways, 7,491 volunteers in Virginia removed more than 490,000 pounds of trash and litter from the commonwealth's rivers and beaches last fall.

October 22: Annual McLean Citizens Association - McLean Chamber of Commerce Candidates Night Forum

The McLean Citizens Association (MCA) and the McLean Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring a Candidates Night Forum on October 22. This year, the public can hear and question candidates who wish to represent the greater McLean area in the Virginia House of Delegates.

Event Details:

Tuesday, October 22 beginning at 6:30 p.m.
McLean Community Center
1234 Ingleside Avenue
McLean

The evening begins with a session at 6:30 pm with the candidates to represent the 35th and 53rd Districts in the Virginia House of Delegates. The candidates vying for the seats for the 34th and 48th Districts will speak and answer questions from beginning at 8:30 pm.

For more information, visit the MCA website: www.mcleancitizens.org.

October 24, 30: Public Meetings on Park Authority Natural Resource Plan

The Fairfax County Park Authority will hold two public comment meetings on the agency's revised Natural Resource Management Plan. The Natural Resource Management Plan, or NRMP, coordinates agency-wide efforts to achieve the resource preservation mission of the Fairfax County Park Authority and implement agency Policy 201 - Natural Resources. The first agency-wide Natural Resource Management Plan was adopted by the Park Authority Board in 2004 and was revised administratively in 2009. This new plan is necessary to clarify the Park Authority's natural resource management philosophy, vision and direction moving forward and promote the stewardship of natural capital

Details of Meetings:

Thursday, October 24 at 7 p.m.
Frying Pan Farm Park Visitor Center
2709 West Ox Rd
Herndon

Wednesday, October 30 at 7 p.m.
Huntley Meadows Park Visitor Center
3701 Lockheed Blvd.
Alexandria

Both meetings will provide an opportunity for members of the public to comment on the plan, available for public review online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/resource-management/nrmp.htm.

A 30-day comment period began October 4. Mail and e-mail comments must be received no later than November 4. Interested parties may wish to attend the public comment meetings to speak or may simply wish to forward comments. Feedback will be accepted via e-mail at Parkmail@fairfaxcounty.gov or you may send your written comments to: Attention Public Information Office/NRMP Comments, Fairfax County Park Authority, 12055 Government Center Parkway, Suite 927, Fairfax, VA 22035-1118.

Each meeting will feature a brief overview of the plan and provide an opportunity for public comment. Those wishing to get more information or to speak at the meeting may pre-register by calling the Public Information Office at 703-324-8662. You need not register in advance to speak at the meeting.
